CoronaVirus Covid-19

I have been receiving several emails from around the world from people who are understandably concerned about the risk from the CoronaVirus.

The London 2020 Organising Committee are monitoring very closely the official UK Government website on this topic. You can follow the government's advice directly at <https://www.gov.uk/coronavirus>.

At the moment there are no problems in London whatsoever and we are planning on carrying on with the exhibition exactly as scheduled.
