

Travelling between London 2022 and the Royal Philatelic Society London

During the exhibition part of the London Underground Northern Line is closed between Moorgate and Kennington. Normally it's just a few stops on the Northern Line between Angel and Bank but the closure affects travel from Angel to Bank and vice versa.

Angel station on the London Underground Northern Line is the nearest to the exhibition. Cannon Street is the nearest station to The Royal.

During the exhibition the simple way to come to The Royal is via Moorgate and change to the Circle Line, but there is no step free access at Moorgate from the Northern Line.

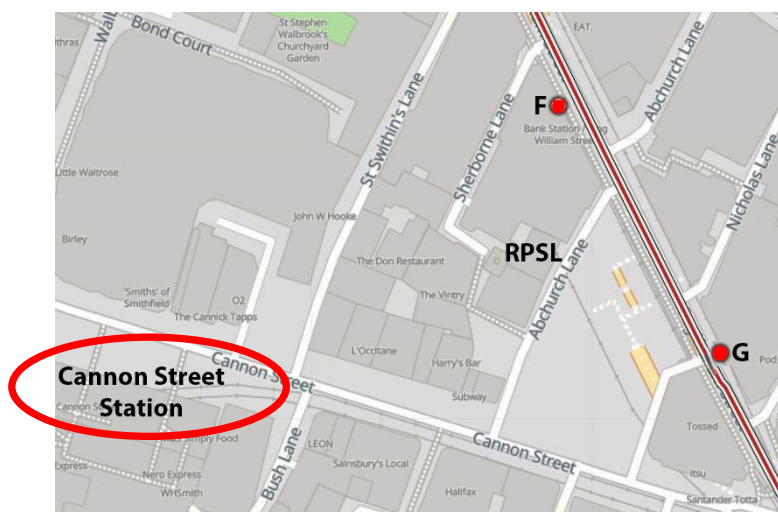

The Northern Line is Black.

The Circle line is Yellow

You can see that Moorgate is only one stop from Bank on the map above. It's an easy 10-15 minute walk. Use Google maps.

Travel like a Londoner ...

Another way to travel is by bus. Go from Angel Station stop G to King William Street / Monument Station stop G.

The 43 bus goes from near The Royal in King William Street - Boarding at Stop F to Angel Islington - Stop Y.

Pay using a contactless credit or debit card. Remember to tap in getting on the bus and when you get off.

It should take about 20-25 minutes and you will see a lot more of London than you would on the underground. And the only steps are on and off the bus, plus the short walk at either end. See <https://tfl.gov.uk/bus/route/43/>

<https://tfl.gov.uk/plan-a-journey/> is a good place to look for directions to find your way in London.

Travelling between The Angel Islington and The Guildhall For the London 2022 Awards Ceremony and The RPSL President's Dinner

DoubleTree by Hilton London Angel: 60 Pentonville Road, London N1 9LA

Hilton London Angel Islington: 53 Upper Street, London N1 0UY

Premier Inn London Angel Islington: 18 Parkfield Street, Islington, London N1 0PS

On the underground it's from Angel to Moorgate and a six-minute walk, but you really won't want to do this in a dinner jacket or long dress ... So it's likely to be a taxi.

There is a shortage of taxi drivers in London at present, and you need to book your taxi well in advance so it's a good idea to do it soon. The event will begin to conclude at 10:30, but best book for later.

Download from the Apple Store or the company website

- Uber operates in London in the usual way using the Uber App. OK for an immediate need but not always good for advance bookings.
- Freenow is widely used by hotels.
- Addison Lee are a more upmarket company and reliable when booked.

It should be possible to book a taxi through your hotel reception desk.

Black Cabs and others: Traditional London black cabs are expensive but Angel to Guildhall and back is a short journey of about two miles (3.3 Km). Probably £15:00-£18:00 each way for four people.

- Download an App <https://taxiapp.uk.com/>
- Call Dial-A-Cab on 020 7253 5000
- Or look at Transport for London <https://tfl.gov.uk/modes/taxis-and-minicabs/book-a-taxi>

The Guildhall entrance is at the West Wing, Corner of Gresham Street and Aldermanbury:

Entrance A See <https://www.guildhall.cityoflondon.gov.uk/find-us>

